Release and indemnification of Landowners

By entering this Hunt Test, each participant agrees to assume all risks and hazards incidental to participation in the test and agrees to release, save harmless and indemnify the owner(s) of any property upon which the test is held together with their officers, agents, employees and representatives from all claims, actions, costs, expenses and demands in respect to death, injury, loss or damage to the person or property of the participant howsoever caused, arising out of or in connection with the participant's use or entry upon the property. It is understood that this agreement is binding upon the participant, or his heirs, his executors and assigns.

Rule 21.7 "It shall be the duty and obligation of the trial giving club to see that a judge, club official, volunteer or any participant at an event held under these rules, is not subject to any indignities of any kind. The Retriever Field Trial Committee Chair shall promptly report to the CKC any infringement of the regulation, and the Discipline Committee shall have the authority to take such action as it deems fit on receipt of a report indicating that this has occurred."

Chapter 20, Sec. 5 of the Field Trial Rules and Regulations:

Any person participating at a Hunt Test held under these Rules shall not be subjected to any indignity of any kind during the progress of the Test, and it shall be the duty and obligation of the Club holding the Test to see that this rule is effectively carried out. On report to the test-giving Club of an alleged indignity of any kind, the Hunt Test Committee of the Club shall forthwith conduct an investigation and shall at once render its decision to the parties concerned. It shall also within ten days after the trial, report to the Canadian Kennel Club its findings. The Board of Directors of the CKC shall have the power to take such action as it deems fit on receipt of a report indicating that this rule has been violated.
